Dear David Martin:

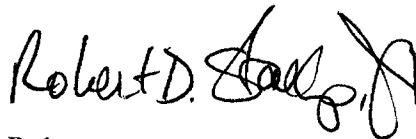

This letter has been long overdue in being sent to you. I realize that building homes is your business, but buying homes is not something most consumers do on a regular basis. I'm sure that I was sometimes very difficult to work with as you were building my home, but I have never spent this kind of money on anything else. And I anticipate living in this home for many, many years.

To add to the anxiety, my other house sold four months before completion of the home you built for me leaving me no home of my own to go to every evening. All along the way, you, Mary and Brenda, and Steve assured me that I would be very happy with my home once completed.

Here we are, nearly a year later, and y'all were right. I am very happy and very proud of my David Martin home. Everyone I dealt with, be it your sales representatives, Steve, the lady answering the phone at your office, and even you, have been professionals - even a pleasure to deal with. If I ever build again in the Metro area, watch out, I will be calling!

Thanks for putting up with me, and building our dream. If you need a reference, let me know. I will be more than happy to give you and your associates one.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Stallings, Jr.
